

The background of the poster is a collage of festive elements. At the top, there are colorful streamers in yellow, blue, and purple. Below them, a wooden barrel is partially visible. In the center, there are several glasses of beer: a tall one with a thick head of foam, a smaller one, and a mug. To the left, there are stalks of wheat and a small bowl of green grapes. On the right, a cartoon squirrel is depicted in a happy, dancing pose. The overall theme is a traditional beer festival.
